GEORUNNER®

SURFACE PROTECTION SYSTEM

minimize rutting and turf damage

Without GEORUNNER® System:
Typical rutting and turf damage

With GEORUNNER® System:
Protection to turf and underlying soils

The GEORUNNER® surface protection system is ideal for minimizing soil compaction and turf damage caused by concentrated light-to-medium loads from vehicles and foot traffic. While excellent for temporary use, the system also can be used for permanent, light-weight applications.

benefits

- Minimizes soil damage/protects turf from temporary light-weight construction or delivery vehicle access
- Protects turf and soils from concentrated pedestrian foot traffic
- Reduces mud tracking from construction site entrances
- Creates a bridge over sandy areas for light-weight access of vehicles, wheel chairs, or foot traffic
- High percent open area allows sunlight and water to permeate, maintaining healthy turf
- Offers benefits over plywood; is easily cleaned for multiple uses and doesn't absorb water and soil
- Light-weight manageable size offers quick and easy transportation between jobs and compact storage
